LB 17, 210A

CLERK: Senator Beutler voting yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Please vote. Please vote. Senator Newell, what is your desire.

SENATOR NEWELL: I wouldn't want anybody to be cheated out of a chance to be responsible. I would like to have a Call of the House, roll call vote.

SENATOR BEUTLER: A Call of the House has been requested. All those in favor of the House going under...technically we are under Call I understand. Everybody please check in. Please push your buttons. Push your buttons, please. Senator Johnson, Senator Schmit, Senator Wiitala. Okay, we are all here. You had asked for a roll call vote, Senator Newell, is that right? Call the roll, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read roll call vote as found on pages 2360-2361 of the Legislative Journal.) 15 ayes, 28 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return.

SENATOR BEUTLER: The motion to return fails. Are there any further motions on the bill, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, the next motion I have to the bill is by Senator Hefner.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: I will withdraw that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: The motion is withdrawn. Are there any further motions on the bill?

CLERK: Nothing further on the bill, Mr. President. Mr. President, 210A by Senator Fowler. (Read title.)

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Fowler.

SENATOR FOWLER: This is the A bill to LB 210. You have had lots of handouts on your desk with regards to the issue so I think you are all familiar with what we are talking about. It is the single sex mortality table with regards to public employee retirement and I would just comment that there was some discussion in the handouts about life insurance and I would repeat that as far as the policy of the State of Nebraska with regards to its state employees for life insurance we use a single sex mortality table and have for as long as I can remember and, therefore, in that area where it is to the benefit of women we did not discriminate. In this case we are just trying to provide that same sort of
